

Taxpayer Access to the Office of the Township Assessor
Koylton Township, Tuscola County

- A. Inquiries and questions may be directed to the township assessor, Nathan D. Hager directly at 810 614 8487 or ndhager@yahoo.com. Koylton Township does not hold regular office hours. The Assessor works out of his home.
- B. Every effort will be made to respond to all inquiries within 5 business days.
- C. Any taxpayer who wishes to meet with the assessor in person can request a meeting by phone or email with the assessor or by making such request to any member of the township board.
- D. A request for documents or records from the assessor's office should be made by phone or email to the assessor and the documents will be produced and returned by electronic mail within 5 business days.
- E. The assessor is always available to discuss property records, methods, and property values. A request to discuss a possible value dispute or other dispute should be made by telephone or electronic mail to the assessor and every effort will be made to meet with the taxpayer prior to the March Board of Review.